

Dr. Lacey Book graduated Cum Laude from Life Chiropractic College West. During her internship at the Institute for Advanced Care in Chiropractic, she received additional advanced, post-doctorate training through the "That Something" Coaching Program making her a part of a select group of chiropractors providing Knee Chest Upper Cervical Specific Chiropractic Care. She has also completed The Art of the Specific to further her expertise in the technique.

Dr. Book also works with her husband, Dr. Shawn Dill, helping service professionals reach more people through marketing, sales and mindset strategies. They do this through their group, The Black Diamond Club. Dr. Book also is a coach to many service professionals that are just getting their businesses off the ground.

She is also known for being a co-host to the El Salvador Outreach Program, which is dedicated to serving the people of El Salvador through yearly trips to provide care as well as the establishment of a chiropractic college and the establishment of a chiropractic law. Every year thousands of Salvadorans are provided care and educated about chiropractic. This has since expanded to other countries such as Mexico and the Philippines.

Upon graduation, Dr. Book took over The Specific Chiropractic Center in Dublin. She is also the COO the chiropractic franchise, The Specific Chiropractic Centers, that operates 16 clinics from Kauai to Boston.

She is highly sought as a speaker, making numerous international appearances each year. Her passion and desire to allow the opportunity for every man, woman and child in the world to get checked for vertebral subluxation drives her to be highly involved in creating initiatives that will affect the lives of many for years to come.
